Interested in learning more about different regions in Africa?

Join the Christian Association and the African Studies Center in our third year of Eat Your Way Through Africa Dinners. This month's dinner will focus on Egypt, with an eye towards the recent political events. Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant with Penn's Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations, Heba Fadel, is keeping abreast of the situation through her family and friends at home and will be sharing her unique perspective on the situation.

RSVP Now! Admission at the door as space allows.

Students are $2 and non-students are $10.
