Penn Abroad in Senegal

Information Session
Wednesday, September 29th
5:30—6:30 PM
Van Pelt Myerson Conference Room

Baobab Center in Dakar & Université Gaston Berger in Saint–Louis, Senegal

Presenters:
Baydallaye Kane, Dean of Arts and Social Sciences at Université Gaston Berger in Saint-Louis and Resident Director for the University of Wisconsin- Madison and University of Pennsylvania programs in St Louis

Benjamin Schuttler, Class of 2012; International Studies, Finance, and Business & Public Policy (past participant Spring ’10)

Anne Sherman, Class of 2011; International relations (past participant Spring’10)

James Zimmerman, Class of 2011; Political science (past participant Spring’10)

Requires 3.0 GPA, 3 years of college level French or equivalent and one African area studies course.