

African Studies Center
University of Pennsylvania

In Collaboration with

The Office of Language Equity Issues
School District of Philadelphia

Invites you to its K-12 Teachers Workshop on:

"Teaching and Learning about Liberia"

(Free Admission)
06 March 2001
3:30PM - 6:00 PM

*Place: Bartram Cluster Office, Staff Development Room
6900 Greenway Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19142*

The African Studies Center in collaboration with Office of Language Equity Issues (OLEI) in the School District of Philadelphia is organizing a one-day Workshop on "Teaching and Learning about African Languages", for K-12 Teachers from the Tri-State area.

Objectives

The workshop will provide:

- Survey about the country's history, and culture.
- Contextual and historical analysis of recent conflict, and impact.
- Teaching resources, and community support.
- Methods in dealing with children from crisis areas.

Program

4:00 - 5:30PM "History, Culture, Conflict"
5:30 - 6:30 PM "Teaching Strategies, emotional support, and resources"

(Refreshments and varieties of African food will be served)

"Teaching and Learning about Liberia"

(03/06/2001)
3:30 PM - 6:00 PM

Registration Form (Free Admission)

Name

School

School District

Cluster

Teaching Grade: Librarian Administrator

School Address:

E-mail Address

Please mail or fax your registration form to:

Dr. Ali Dinar
African Studies Center
645 Williams Hall
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, PA 19104-6305

Fax (215) 573-7379
Phone (215) 898-6610, E-mail: aadinar@sas.upenn.edu

(Registration Accepted until Workshop is filled
Early Registration by March 2nd is Recommended.
Space is Limited)

Directions

(By SEPTA, take Trolley #11 until 69th Street, Greenway Avenue is in one block range)

ESOL & Bilingual teachers from the School District of Philadelphia will be compensated at the staff development rate