

The University of Pennsylvania's Africa Center,
Middle East Center, the Center for East Asian Studies and South Asia Center present

2013 GLOBAL DISTINGUISHED LECTURE

Sharmeen OBAID-CHINOY

ACADEMY AWARD
WINNING DOCUMENTARY
FILMMAKER

In just under a decade, SHARMEEN OBAID-CHINOY has captivated the worlds of film, television, journalism, and human rights. Her dedication to exposing stories that would otherwise go untold has brought her Academy and Emmy awards, international critical praise, and one of her home country's highest civilian honors. She is an urgent voice in intercultural understanding and education about the nuances and particularities of vulnerable populations worldwide.

PHOTO: BINA KHAN

SCREENING OF SAVING FACE

2012 Academy Award
Best Documentary Short

FOLLOWED BY Q&A

with Ms. Obaid-Chinoy

A reception will follow in Irvine Auditorium, Café 58
34th & Spruce

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR CO-SPONSORS

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL POLICY AND PRACTICE | GENDER, SEXUALITY AND WOMEN'S STUDIES PROGRAM | ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES

DEPARTMENT OF CINEMA STUDIES | GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT FUND, OFFICE OF THE PROVOST | DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

CENTER FOR GLOBAL COMMUNICATIONS STUDIES, ANNENBERG SCHOOL OF COMMUNICATIONS | SMITH COLLEGE CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA

RSVP at GLOBALDISTINGUISHEDLECTURE.EVENTBRITE.COM

APRIL

18

THURSDAY

6PM

HARRISON AUDITORIUM
PENN MUSEUM
33RD STREET
& SPRUCE STREET